TASTING NOTES

The 2012 Vellum Black is dominated by dark fruit. Massive blueberry, black raspberry and boysenberry compote flavours are delivered en masse to grab immediate attention. The nose is laden with heady notes of wild blueberry, boysenberry, vanilla bean and entwined lemon rind and bramble. The high, full-foremouth volume of fruit transitions with a seamless purpose across the entire breadth of the palate. This ample wine is framed by adroit and chalky tannins and both are smartly delivered to a long succulent and persistent finish. Age 25+ years. (8 barrels produced)
